

VA Student Agreement

RETT Licensing School is an approved real estate education provider to accept payment from the Veterans Administration to provided students the education to secure a Texas Real Estate License. The student agrees to the following:

The student will provide RETT a copy of their VA eligibility documents, social security number, copy of drivers license and a copy of transcripts from other courses completed using their VA eligibility.

The student will also complete registration by providing a schedule of courses to RETT with the date of their first class and the date of their last class. Any adjustments to the schedule will be reported to VA for approval.

The student may then start the classes.

Course completion certificates will be awarded upon payment of $869 from the student or from the VA.

If for any reason the payment of $869 is not received from VA, the student acknowledges that he/she is liable for the payment to RETT.

The student also acknowledges that if he/she does not complete classes as agreed, there will be no refund from RETT and the student will be liable to VA.

Note: No previous credits or experience will be added to this program.
